W. H. OEHLERT'S THIRD TRIAL

Slayer of Linwood Kidwell Faces Jury From Fredericksburg

SPECTATORS SCARCE

Jury Soon Empanelled—Some Witnesses Summoned on Two Previous Occasions Reappear.

William H. Oehlert, indicted for shooting and killing Linwood Kidwell in the yard office of the Southern Railway in this city, on the night of the 12th of November, 1918, was brought to trial for the third time in the Corporation Court this morning.

Commonwealth's Attorney Howard W. Smith and Attorney Charles H. Smith conducted the prosecution, and Attorney Edmund Burke appeared for the accused.

Judge R. H. Chichester, of Fredericksburg, presided, and a jury from that city was empanelled, as follows: E. M. Curtis, Joseph Boxley, Franklin Sterns, John Genther, W. A. Bell, F. M. Aldridge, J. E. Timberlake, Frank Foster, R. H. Carmichael, M. L. Bowling, A. P. Jacobs and George W. Heflin.

The Commonwealth's Attorney made his opening address to the jury, and was followed by Edmund Burke for the defense.

The examination of witnesses followed.

Dr. T. M. Jones was first to take the stand. He described the wound which caused Kidwell's death.

He was followed by William E. Midkiff, assistant yard master of the Southern Railway, who was in the office when Kidwell was shot. His testimony did not vary materially from that given for the prosecution at the previous trials. He said Oehlert exclaimed, "How about shooting up this d—d place?" and the shooting followed. After the shooting of Kidwell, Oehlert threatened to kill Walter Dameron, who started towards the prisoner at the request of witness who was endeavoring to disarm Oehlert.

William H. Posey, who was also in the office at the time of the shooting, was the next witness. He corroborated the material part of the testimony of the previous witness.

At one o'clock court took a recess until two o'clock.

Upon the reconvening of the court Walter Dameron, who was in the yard office at the time Kidwell received his mortal wound, took the stand. He witnessed substantially as did Messrs. Midkiff and Posey. His testimony was substantially as that given at the previous time.

Ellis Langford, another witness for the prosecution, was on the stand when this report closed. He was also one of the inmates of the yard at the time of the shooting. His testimony was upon the lines of that of the previous witnesses.

$5,000,000 PEACE MEMORIAL FOR D. C.

A national arch of triumph, to commemorate world freedom and the heroes and events of the recent world war, will be erected in Washington, probably on the Mall.

The House Public Buildings and Grounds Committee gave approval to consideration of such a memorial and Chairman Langley was instructed to name a committee of five to work out details and report out a bill providing for the memorial.

It is estimated that preliminary work and surveys will cost about $50,000. The memorial would cost approximately $5,000,00.

Thomas was absent when his place ws searched, and evidently having been informed of the raid has not yet returned. A warrant has been issued for his arrest.

HUNGARIAN RIOTS

Gendarmes Overcome Miners at Totis After Bolshevistic Meeting

Serious disturbances have taken place at Totis, Hungary, twelve miles southeast of Komorm, as a result of the action on Wednesday of a number of miners, influenced by bolshevik agitators, in proclaiming a new proletariat dictatorship and disarming the small police force there.

The mob hoisted the red flag, wrecked seevral houses and maltreated the civil officials. Later 500 gendarmes arrived in Totis and after furious fighting, lasting for three hours, overcame the mutineers.

Seven persons were killed and 25 wounded.

COAL OPERATORS TO REFUSE PAY BOOST

Buffalo, N. Y., Sept. 26.—The first response of the soft coal operators to the demands of the United Mine Workers of America for a new wage scale, effective November 1, with the alternative of a general strike on that date, will be based on the argument that the present Washington wage agreement runs for the duration of the war, or until April 1 192, if the war be not ended by that time, and that there is therefore no reason to put a new scale into effect November 1.

This was learned from preliminary statements of coal operators gathered here for the joint wage scale conference with representatives of the miners from the four districts Ohio, Illinois, Indiana and Western Pennsylvania, constituting the central competitive field. Their spokesman, however, refrained from announcing the attitude to be taken on the general demands for the 60 per cent increase, six-hour day, five-day week and other conditions formulated at the Cleveland convention of the mine workers.

The answer of the miners to the argument that the Washington wage agreement does not expire until after peace has been proclaimed as the war is actually at an end and that they are justified in declaring present agreements terminated as from November 1.

FIND BOBDY OF OFFICER

Indications Are It Had Been Hanging There for More Than Three Weeks

Norfolk, Va., Sept. 26.—The body of a naval warrant officer, identified as that of S. J. Bristow, ranking as a pharmist's mate and stationed at the Hampton Roads naval operating base, at this port, was yesterday found hanging from the limb of a tree in a thickly wooded section of Ocean View, a nearby summer resort yesterday afternoon. From the condition of the body, physicians say the death had occurred about three or four weeks ago, Coroner J. W. Watkins pronounced it a case of suicide.

IN MEMORIAM

In sad but loving remembrance of our dear loving mother, Annie R. Benington, who entered into eternal rest two months ago August 9, 1919.

God called you just two months ago
To dwell with him on high,
And when he takes our grief away,
We will meet you in the sky.
Some day perhaps we will understand,
When we meet again in a better land,
You dont know the sorrow to be left alone,
Till God sends a message to our home,
It is sad when he calls for one and another,
But worst of all when God calls a mother.

MAY WITHDRAW TREATY OF PEACE

President Will Not Allow it to Suffer Any Mutilation

HAS RIGHT TO RECALL

Wilson BeBlieved to Have This Course In Mind—Will Not Compromise Upon Any Reservations

That President Wilson will withdraw the treaty of peace with Germany from consideration of the Senate before he will suffer it to be amended textually or "reservated" in any vital respect is the growing belief of many of those who are supporting him in this fight and the fear of mny who are not.

It was stated in some quarters yesterday that word had been received in Washington that the President had this course in mind when he gave notice in a recent speech that he would not compromise upon any reservations that change rather than merely interpret the meaning of treaty articles.

There seems to be no question as to the legal right of the President to withdraw the treaty, if he sees fit, either before it is acted upon or after it has been ratified, rejected, amended or otherwise dealt with by the Senate. There are many precedents, it is said, for such action, although no American executive ever has taken a peace treaty out of the hands of the Senate.

Should the treaty be withdrawn the relationship of this country toward the other belligerent powers would be difficult to define. We would neither be at war with Germany, for example, nor at peace with her, any more than we are at war or peace with her now. The United States would still remain a signatory to the Versailles treaty and yet that treaty would have no binding effect upon this Government and would obligate Germany to carry out none of its pledges made to this country or pledges made which involve the direct interests of the United States.

When three other powers should ratify the treaty, not counting Germany, it will go into effect as it applies to such powers and to Germany, but it cannot be operative as it was designed to apply to America. This country would be on the outside, although morally and legally entitled to be on the inside.

What course the President might take and what course Congress might take in the event the treaty withdrawal should eventuate is a matter of interesting speculation. Mr. Wilson might reopen negotiations with the signatories of the Versailles treaty for certain changes n the treaty or he might merely file the treaty away in the archives of the State Department, or he might deliberately wash his hands of the whole business by canceling his signature and that of hs associates upon the document now in Paris. This would be the most radical step he might take.

STEEL STRIKE AT ITS MAXIMUM

Unions Fighting to Hold What Gains They Have Made

GARY REMAINS FIRM

Operators Now Assuming The Offensive—No New Recruits to Union Ranks Claimed.

Pittsburgh, Sept. 26.—Steel strike sympathizers engaged in a long range gun battle with State and local police at Clairton early today.

The firing occurred between 5 and 6 a. m., when about a dozen strike sympathizers are alleged to have begun firing on men en route to the mills for the day's work. It was dark and the flashes from the guns revealed the attackers' whereabouts.

The State and local police, who had been expecting trouble, were lying in wait. They immediately returned the fire. Then, giving chase, they captured three men whose guns, they said, had been fired and reloaded.

It is not known whether any of the strike sympathizers were hit. Several cries were heard during the shooting but no wounded were found.

Pittsburgh, Sept. 26.—The steel strike appears to have reached the maximum in this district.

The unions are fighting to hold what gains they have made. The operators are now assuming the offensive, after recovering from the first shock of the walkout.

For the first time since the strike was called the national committee for organizing the iron and steel workers claimed no new recruits to the union ranks. On the other hand, the operators reopened at least one plant—the Rankin mill of the American Steel and Wire Company—and asserted that all others in operation were drawing back their employes.

Rioting was general at Farrell where one man said to have been sniping loyal workers, was killed by a bullet and another was clubbed into serious condition. Another died of wounds received in rioting Tuesday night at Buffalo.

The Carnegie Steel Company, the backbone of the operators, stated that it would prefer to shut down the mills for months rather than yield to the strikers now. The reason given for this stand was that a victory for the strikers would mean the predominance of the ultra radical element in the American Federation of Labor indefinitely.

MAKING SOUNDINGS

The Standard Oil Company, which recently acquired the ground at the southwest corner of Gibbon and Union streets, and which extends to the port warden's line in the river, is making soundings for the purpose of ascertaining the weight the ground will bear.

As was the case with the site of the torpedo factory, the area which has been acquired by the Standard Oil Company was at one time part of the Potomac river, and piles may be placed in the foundation as was done by the contractors for the torpedo plant.

The Standard Oil Company may in the near future be compelled to place tanks upon their newly-acquired property, and with this end in view soundings are now being made.

In bygone years a large brick residence stood upon this spot. At high tide the water encroached upon a porch which stood in front of the house. A short distance west a lime kiln was operated. The lime kiln and the residence have long since disappeared. The property now owned by the Standard Oil Co. embraces the spot upon which a shipyard conducted by the late Hanson Day up to 1861 was located. A saw mill stood upon the opposite side of the street. For over half a century no business has been conducted in this locality. At present several "arks" which have been pulled from the river are used as human habitations, which, of course will be removed when the Standard Oil Company begins operations. Like inhabitants of the floating City of Siam (Bangkok) they will be forced to "pole" to other nearby places.

WORDS OF TRUTH

People who "continue to believe that there is a bag of gold at the end of the rainbow," are largely responsible for industrial and social unrest in America and other countries, Secretary Lane declared in an address yesterday before the annual convention of the Association of American Secretaries of State. "These folk," said Mr. Lane "won't take the word of experienced men all down the road of history that there is no magical way to happiness. Work alone finds the way. Work is the salvation, materially and spiritually.

"wane af mod-om do mod ohw

"Our war morale has not been maintained. We have not the unity of purpose that prevailed then. We lack a common purpose, we Americans, though we are just as loyal, just as idealistic.

"We can develop an aggressive, constructive program for America. Let us all work to make this country a better place in which to live, not by selfish enterprise, but by co-operation. That is our ideal. Let us live up to it."

WOULD OUTLAW STRIKES

However desirable it may be in the public interest to outlaw railroad strikes, as proposed in the Cummins Railroad Reorganization bill now pending in the House, there is weight in the contention of Samuel Gompers that such a measure even should it stand the test of constitutionality, is antagonistic to the spirit of our institutions and could not be made effective. The strike is a costly and absurd method of settling industrial disputes; but the right of the worker to dispose of his labor as he sees fit, and to terminate it when the compensation is unsatisfactory to him, cannot be challenged. If he has a moral and legal right to do this individually, he would seem to have a moral right to do it collectively, and an attempt to deprive him of this right by law would be likely to prove in this country, as it has elsewhere, abortive.

Congress instead of considering means of depriving men of the right to quit work at their option, might better be exercised upon measures to protect against infringement the right of those who wish to work. A large proportion of industrial strikes are effective in tying up the business of the employers because a minority of dissatisfied workmen are successful in coercing a majority. Violence and intimidation have been the most potent weapons of strikers in many conflicts with their employers. The laws for the protection of men who desire to continue their employment when their fellows quit, and of men who desire to take the places of those who have quit, are ineffective because they are too lenient and too laxly administered.

The right to work is a natural corollary to the right to stop work. If Senator Cummins can find a way accurately to safeguard it he can do more to secure uninterrupted operation of the railroads than he can by persiting in the anti-srtike provisions of his bill.—(Philadelphia Record.

To the Alexandria Gazette:

Your city is indeed to be congratulated for turning down the city manager form of government. It is the most expensive manner of government and too much one man power. Our town is in the worst financial state it has ever been and due to this plan. Under this form of government it will never improve. I could write more but as you were smart enough to vote it down, I need say no more.

He was later picked up by a passerby and taken to Five Points, where the horse and carriage were found. Nothing has since been heard of the robbers.

Our Employees Are Your Neighbors

IN THE STATE OF Virginia we have 2,254 people on our payroll. Together they make up the telephone company, and all of them are your neighbors. They are regular people, just like you, your friends and family.

THESE EMPLOYEES OF OURS spend their wages right at home. They eat food, wear clothes, live in houses, talk, laugh, sing, cry, get peevish—and get over it—and enjoy the movies, just like you. They are good citizens and we are proud of them.

THESE FOLKS ARE trying hard to give you good telephone service. They comprise the organiation whose business it is to see that always there is some one on hand to keep the service going in spite of accident, flood, epidemic, storm—any one of a hundred emergencies.

THEY TAKE PRIDE in their work and in their company. But sometimes, when they hear people complaining about paying a necessary slight increase for telephone service, they become worried and wonder how they are going to make ends meet. For they know their wages depend on what you pay for telephone service.

NOW THAT WE ARE asking that the company be allowed to make a living, we believe it is timely and appropriate to remind you that the more support you give the telephone company the better it can serve you.

UNION LEFT TO COURT

D. C. Policemen Decide to Await Decision on Status in Regard to A. F. L. Affiliation

Washington, Sept. 26.—The City Policemen's Union in a meeting last night in Musicians' Hall, 1006 E street northwest, unanimously decided to allow the courts to determine the union's status in regard to affiliation with the American Federation of Labor.

A positive non strike clause, prohibiting strikes, was adopted as an amendment to the constitution of the union. Six new members were announced.

Last night's gathering probably was the largest police meeting held here in recent years.

The police authorities co-operated in making the meeting a success, permitting men on duty during the night to be present throughout the meeting, or for the greater part of it.

Frank Morrison, secretary of the American Federation of Labor; R. L. Saxton, also of the Federation, and Wilton J. Lambert, the union's counsel, made short addresses.

KILLED IN COLLISION

Gary Trolley Cars Meet Head on Under a Viaduct

Gary, Ind., Sept. 26.—Three men were killed, 2 were seriously injured and 50 hurt less seriously when two street cars, crowded with steel strikers, collided near the plant of the American Sheet and Tin Plate Company yesterday.

Both cars were running at high speed and collided head on under a viaduct on a sharp curve. The men were on their way to the company's offices to receive their pay checks when the accident occurred.

PLUCKY YOUNG WOMAN

No Scream, But a Punch and a Club Meets Robber

Chester, Pa., Sept. 26.—When a masked man attacked Miss Frances Hill, a vocalist of this city, while she was returning to her home late Wednesday night, she did not even scream for help. She met the fellow with a hard blow in the face, pulled off his mask and after giving him another punch seized a piece of lumber and knocked him to the ground. Finding he had tackled the wrong girl he scrambled to his feet and beat a retreat.

Adjusting her hat which had been knocked a askew during the scuffle Miss Hill continued her journey to her home at Ninth and Hyatt streets, from where she telephoned to the police.

LEOPARD CANNOT CHANGE SPOTS

Mr. Dodson, the "Liver Tone" Man, Tells the Treachery of Calomel.

Calomel loses you a day! You know what calomel is. It's mercury; quicksilver. Calomel is dangerous. It crashes into sour bile like dynamite, cramping and sickening you. Calomel attacks the bones and should never be put into your system.

When you feel billious, sluggish, constipated and all knocked out and believe you need a dose of dangerous calomel just remember that your druggist sells for a few cents a large bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone, which is entirely vegetable and pleasant to take and is a perfect substitute for calomel. It is guaranteed to start your liver without stirring you up inside, and can not salivate.

Don't take calomel! It can not be trusted any more than a leopard or a wild-cat. Take Dodson's Liver Tone which straightens you right up and makes you feel fine. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and doesn't gripe.

When your mouth tastes like all the mean things you ever did—mixed together, then you need Beecham's Pills. Your mouth is a good indication of the condition of stomach and bowels.

And insert in lieu thereof the following:

Section 136. Each county, city, town, if the same be a separate school district, and school district is authorized to raise additional sums by a tax on property, not to exceed in the aggregate in any one year a rate of levy to be fixed by law, to be apportioned and expended by the local school authorities of said counties, cities, towns and districts in establishing and maintaining such schools as in their judgment the public welfare may require; provided that such primary schools as may be established in any school year, shall be maintained at least four months of that school year, before any part of the fund assessed and collected may be devoted to the establishment of schools of higher grade. The boards of supervisors of the several counties, and the councils of the several cities, and towns if the same be separate school districts, shall provide for the levy and collection of such local school taxes.

GIFTS TO WILSON

Washington, D. C., Sept. 26.—A full investigation by Congress into the trophies President Wilson brought back from Europe was asked yesterday in the House by Representative Rodenburg, Illinois, who introduced a resolution calling for an inventory and a statement as to the donors of the gifts in order that Congress might know whether there had been any violation of the Constitution which forbids the acceptance by the President of presents from rulers of other nations.

Following closely upon Senator Penrose's reference in the Senate to the value of the gifts received by the Presidential party, the Rodenburg resolution seeks to throw the light of publicity on the whole matter.

I have introduced this resolution to clear up the rumors that have been current for months that the President and members of his family were made the recipients of gifts while in Europe aggregating in value more than a half million dollars," said Mr. Rodenburg. "If there should be no foundation for these rumors, a great injustice is being done to the reputation of the President and he is entitled to an exoneration."

He quoted the Constitution on the matter of gifts and continued: "Personally, I am loath to believe that any President of the United States would be guilty of violating this plain provision of the Constitution, but owing to the persistent repetition of these rumors the public is entitled to be fully advised as to their truth or falsity."

HINTS AT BLOCKADE

Wilson Categorically Refuses to Accept Italian Viewpoint in Fiume Dispute

Paris, Sept. 26.—It is learned that President Wilson's reply to the inquiry of the Peace Conference regarding his attitude on the Fiume situation is a categorical refusal to accept the Italian viewpoint.

The President's message also contains a specific threat of an economic blockade which has caused a tremendous impression in Italy where the suggestion of such a policy is openly called blackmail on the part of President Wilson.

Washington, Sept. 26.—Secretary of the Navy Daniels yesterday denied reports that American Marines had been landed near Fiume in connection with the D'Annunzio revolt. The Secretary declared that the American naval squadron in the Adriatic was acting as it would under similar circumstances anywhere else in the world; that it was there to look after American lives and property and that beyond this it was taking no part in the Fiume affair.

INGOMAR THEATRE

All who admire real comedy and strong dramatic action presented in a harmonious combination, should see Billie Burke in her latest Paramount photoplay, "Good Gracious Annabelle!" which is being presented at the Ingomar Theatre today. It is in every respect an excellent photoplay, and is proving a delight to the patrons of this popular play house. Miss Burke is splendwidly supported, hre leading man being Herbert Rawlinson. The picture was directed by George Melford, with highly satisfactory results. As an extra attraction "Fatty" Arbuckle will be seen in "The Butcher Boy."

GRAND THEATRE

In "The Game's Up," her newest Bluebird comedy drama, which comes to the Grand Theatre tonight Ruth Clifford is seen as a young artist, who has failed to make good, but who has written glowing letters home, telling of motor cars, palatial homes, and influential friends which exist only in her imagination. How she is helped out by a millionaire posing as a chauffeur and later led to the altar as his bride, makes a rattling good hour of laughs and heart interest Also Pete Morison in Laws and Justice. A powerful Western drama.

RICHMOND THEATRE

The willingness of a girl to sacrific wealth, comfort and luxury to which sh had been accustomed in order to live with her father although his abode was a tenement house forms the central theme in "The Hoodlum," starring Mary Pickford, produced by her and which will be seen for two days commencing at the Richmond Theatre today.

As Anny Burke, Miss Pickford's station in life switches from one of chummy-roadsters, crepe-de chine frocks, maids and money to push carts, poverty stricken districts, the garb of the destitute and crap games with the East Side boys.

To Our Patrons

Alexandria, Va., June 2, 1919.

In line with our progressive banking methods, and to meet the demands of our patrons, we are installing on July 1st, an up-to-date Safe Deposit Department, under the personal supervision of one of our officers.

This has been made necessary from the fact that a large number of our depositors owning Liberty Bonds and other securities desire a safe place for their keeping.

It is our plan to enlarge the number of Safe Deposit Boxes, and make a rental charge to meet the operating expenses of this Department. This charge will become effective July 1st, 1919, and a bill will be sent out at that time to the holders of boxes, and if any desire to make any change we will be glad to have them call before the bills are rendered for the ensuing year.
